CHAPTER 318.

AN ACT authorizing the State Roads Commission to make a survey and estimate of the cost of construction of a State Highway between Mount Airy and Westminster in Carroll County.

WHEREAS, the intent of the framers of the law creating the State Highways Commission was to connect the County seat of the several Counties by the most direct routes;

AND, WHEREAS, there remains a gap of unimproved road, seventeen miles, between Mount Airy and Westminster, known as The Ridge Road, which if completed would give a continuous improved highway from Washington, Rockville, Westminster and Gettysburg, much shorter than any other route, now available over any improved highway; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That the State Roads Commission are hereby authorized to make a survey and estimate of the cost of construction of the unimproved portion of public
